AN ELECTRICAL CAMPAIGN

We propose to make a strong canvass among those who would like to use electricity if the cost were not too great. Send us word and we will call and give you an estimate of how little it will cost to have your house wired for it.

MEAN TRICK ON EX-HUSBAND.

To see how her divorced husband, Matt Campbell, would take it, Mrs. William Griffith, of Tuscola, Ill., sent a false report of her death to him on Thursday at Champagne, Ill., and followed on the next train, to observe his actions. Mrs. Griffith wrote that she intended to commit suicide and would leave directions that her body be shipped to him at Champagne for burial. In the letter she even told him on what train the body would arrive.

Campbell spread the news and a group of mourners met the train, many of them carrying flowers. Arrangements had been made with a local undertaker and preacher for the funeral and the grave had been prepared. The train arrived, but no corpse.

Campbell was surprised, and then became uneasy, thinking perhaps the body had been sent to some other town by mistake. He telegraphed to Tuscola and on the way back home he met his former wife, whom he thought dead, face to face. Campbell was hardly able to believe his sight and when convinced he was not facing a ghost asked for an explanation and was told she merely wanted to see how he would act if she had died.

There are many imitations of DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve but just one original. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SHORT OUTPUT OF KRAUT.

The indications are that the German staple, sauerkraut, will be more relished during the coming fall and winter than ever before. The weather conditions during the summer have been such as to greatly shorten the crop of cabbage. Drouths in the west and the north have been responsible for many barren cabbage fields.

Early cabbage sprouts were killed off before they were a month old, and farmers and shippers are now depending on late crops. Even should these crops reach their full growth by October, the kraut packers of the eastern section of the country will be prevented from putting up their usual stocks.

In Baltimore, however, the prominent kraut packers are soliciting orders, but they have also informed the retail dealers of the outlook. If it is possible to secure cabbage the kraut will be delivered.

TO PROBE THE ANTARCTIC.

Acclaimed by a great crowd, including representatives of the government, the steamer Pourquoi Pas left Havre, Saturday, on a voyage of discovery to the South Pole. The expedition is a private one and is headed by Dr. Jean Charcot, who led a similar voyage in 1905. In addition to a number of young scientists there is a crew of 28 on the ship.

After reaching Alexander's Land Dr. Charcot plans to explore and define the southern limits of the Pacific ocean, and to determine accurately whether or not there is a vast continent extending as far south as the pole itself. The expedition is fitted out for three years, but the members expect to live largely on the result of their hunting and fishing in the Antarctic.

ATLANTIC CITY WIDE OPEN.

Fifty thousand people went to Atlantic City to get a Sunday drink yesterday, according to figures of railroad men and the deductions of cafe and saloon proprietors, who reaped a harvest from the defiance of Gov. Fort's order to close the Sunday saloons of the resort.

Bars which ran in the usual free and easy style of the Atlantic City Sunday did a record business, men standing in line three deep.

Only one arrest was made during the day, John Hardy, a Philadelphian, who imbibed too much.

Chief Prober Fiske, of the governor's commission, who started the row over the open Atlantic City, Sunday, was among the promenade on the boardwalk, and gave out an interview in which he declared that Gov. Fort would find some way to force the resort to obey the laws.

EXPLORER DIES IN SNOWSTORM

The ship Denmark, of the Denmark, Greenland Expedition, arrived at Bergen, Norway, Saturday. It appears that the body of Danish explorer, Mylius Erichsen, who perished in a snowstorm while traveling over the ice on the northeastern coast of Greenland was not recovered. During the explorations an extensive group of islands was discovered between latitude 78° and 79°. The members of the expedition also found the depot left by Commander Robert E. Peary, near Cape Bridgman, during their progress northward.

Mr. Erichsen and Lieutenants Hagen and Broenland perished in November, 1907, in trying to return from the north coast of Greenland by way of inland ice, having been obliged to remain on the coast during the summer of that year owing to the state of the weather.
